Cryoport, Inc. Announces Proposed Convertible Senior Notes Offering

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE—(PR NEWswire)—November 8, 2021—Cryoport, Inc. (Nasdaq: CYRX), a global leader in temperature-controlled supply chain solutions for the life sciences industry, today announced its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, $300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2026 (the “notes”) in a private offering to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). Cryoport also expects to grant the initial purchasers of the notes an option to purchase, for settlement within a period of 13 days from, and including, the date notes are first issued, up to an additional $45,000,000 principal amount of notes.

The notes will be senior, unsecured obligations of Cryoport, will accrue interest payable semi-annually in arrears and will mature on December 1, 2026, unless earlier repurchased, redeemed or converted. Noteholders will have the right to convert their notes in certain circumstances and during specified periods. Cryoport will settle conversions by paying or delivering, as applicable, cash, shares of its common stock or a combination of cash and shares of its common stock, at Cryoport’s election. The notes will be redeemable, in whole or in part (subject to certain limitations), for cash at Cryoport’s option at any time, and from time to time, on or after December 6, 2024 and on or before the 41st scheduled trading day immediately before the maturity date, but only if certain liquidity conditions are satisfied and the last reported sale price per share of Cryoport’s common stock exceeds 130% of the conversion price for a specified period of time. The redemption price will be equal to the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date. The interest rate, initial conversion rate and other terms of the notes will be determined at the pricing of the offering.

Cryoport intends to use the net proceeds from the registered direct placement of common stock referred to below and a portion of the net proceeds from the offering to repurchase a portion of its outstanding 3.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2025 (the “2025 convertible notes”) in separate, privately negotiated repurchase transactions with a limited number of holders of the 2025 convertible notes. Cryoport intends to use the remainder of the net proceeds for general corporate purposes.

Holders of the 2025 convertible notes that participate in any of these repurchases may purchase or sell shares of Cryoport’s common stock in the open market to unwind any hedge positions they may have with respect to the 2025 convertible notes or to hedge their exposure in connection with these transactions. These activities may adversely affect the trading price of Cryoport’s common stock and the notes being offered. Moreover, market activities by holders of the 2025 convertible notes may impact the initial conversion price of the notes being offered.

In a separate press release, Cryoport also announced today its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, shares of common stock in a separate, registered direct placement. The completion of the offering of the notes is not contingent on the completion of the placement of common stock; however the completion of the placement of common stock is contingent on the completion of the offering of the notes. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any common stock in the placement.

The offer and sale of the notes and any shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or any other securities laws, and the notes and any such shares cannot be offered or sold except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, the notes or any shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes, nor will there be any sale of the notes or any such shares, in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer, sale or solicitation would be unlawful.

Cryoport, Inc. Announces Proposed Registered Direct Placement of Common Stock

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE—(PR NEWSWIRE)—November 8, 2021—Cryoport, Inc. (Nasdaq: CYRX), a global leader in temperature-controlled supply chain solutions for the life sciences industry, today announced its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, shares of its common stock in a direct placement registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The number of shares to be sold, and the price per share, will be determined at the pricing of the placement.

Cryoport intends to use the net proceeds from the placement and a portion of net proceeds from the offering of notes referred to below to repurchase a portion of its outstanding 3.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2025 (the “2025 convertible notes”) in separate, privately negotiated repurchase transactions with a limited number of holders of the 2025 convertible notes. Cryoport intends to use the remainder of the net proceeds for general corporate purposes.

Holders of the 2025 convertible notes that participate in any of these repurchases may purchase or sell shares of Cryoport’s common stock in the open market to unwind any hedge positions they may have with respect to the 2025 convertible notes or to hedge their exposure in connection with these transactions. These activities may adversely affect the trading price of Cryoport’s common stock and the notes being offered. Moreover, market activities by holders of the 2025 convertible notes may impact the initial conversion price of the notes being offered.

Jefferies LLC and SVB Leerink LLC are acting as joint placement agents for the placement.

The placement is being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). The placement will be made only by means of a prospectus supplement and an accompanying prospectus. An electronic copy of the preliminary prospectus supplement, together with the accompanying prospectus, is available on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. Alternatively, copies of the preliminary prospectus supplement, together with the accompanying prospectus, can be obtained by contacting: Cryoport, Inc. 112 Westwood Place, Suite 350, Brentwood, TN 37027, Attn: Chief Financial Officer or (949) 470-2300.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any common stock, nor will there be any sale of any common stock in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer, sale or solicitation would be unlawful.

In a separate press release, Cryoport also announced today its intention to offer, in a separate, private offering to qualified institutional buyers, subject to market and other conditions, $300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2026 (the “notes”), plus up to an additional $45,000,000 aggregate principal amount of notes that the initial purchasers of the note offering have the option to purchase from Cryoport. The completion of the placement of common stock is contingent on the completion of the offering of the notes, but the completion of the offering of notes is not contingent on the completion of the placement of common stock. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, any notes or shares of common stock, if any, issuable upon conversion of the notes.
